NATIONAL CAPITAL PARKS

PRESENTING—

A schedule of events from April through November in the National Capital Region, National Park Service, U.S. Department of the Interior.

You, your family, and friends are invited to visit the parks of the Nation's Capital and participate in the many programs and activities planned for your enjoyment and benefit.

THE DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR—The Nation's principal natural resource agency—has a special obligation to assure that our expendable resources are conserved, that our renewable resources are managed to produce optimum benefits, and that all resources contribute to the progress and prosperity of the United States, now and in the future.

Park Information

Consult Chronological Listing for Further Information on Programs

All interpretive events in this program are conducted by Park historians, naturalists, and Park guides who provide interpretation and answer questions. These activities are free except for transportation on barge trips.

Public transportation is available to most meeting places. Transportation companies are pleased to provide information about bus routes and schedules.

Battleground National Cemetery: 6625 Georgia Avenue NW. The cemetery was established in 1864 after the Confederate attack on Washington, culminating in the Battle of Fort Stevens. Tours are conducted by Park Historians. Telephone: 381-7283 or 7284.

Carter Barron Amphitheatre: Outdoor theater in Rock Creek Park adjacent to 16th Street and Colorado Avenue NW., can be reached via 14th and 16th Street buslines. Special buses available after each performance. Parking space available. Programs from early June through Labor Day feature musicals, operettas, symphony concerts, folk music, ballet, and variety shows with outstanding guest artists. Schedule available about May 1. Tickets are on sale at Carter Barron Amphitheatre Box Office, Rock Creek Park; and at the Super Music City Box Office, 1344 F Street NW., Washington, D.C. Telephone 882-2620 or 783-2300.

Catoctin Mountain Park: This 5,765-acre park, on the easternmost ridge of Maryland's Appalachian province, is 60 miles northwest of Washington, D.C., on State Route 77, 3 miles west of Thurmont, Md. Telephone: area code 301, 824-2022.

Chesapeake and Ohio Canal: This 130-year-old waterway extends 185 miles from Georgetown, D.C., to Cumberland, Md. The short, narrow levels of the canal in Georgetown afford picturesque views. Upstream, the canal traverses the Potomac River floodplain which is ideally suited for nature study. The area is accessible all year via the towpath. Canoeing, boating, camping, hiking, fishing, picnicking, and ice skating are among the recreational facilities you may enjoy. Park Naturalists and Historians conduct guided trips along the towpath and tours aboard an oldtime mule-drawn barge (see Barge Trips). Telephone: 381-7343 or 381-7417.

Custis-Lee Mansion, "Arlington House": This memorial to Robert E. Lee, located in Arlington National Cemetery, is reached from Washington by crossing Arlington Memorial Bridge. The Mansion is open daily from 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. (9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., winter months). Entrance fee for persons 16 and over, 50 cents. Free printed and rental audio self-guiding tours available. Short film program every 20 minutes. Telephone: 381-7417 or 525-2700, ext. 66146.

Dumbarton Oaks Park: In Georgetown, south of Whitehaven Street between Observatory Circle and the Rock Creek and Potomac Parkway. Twenty-seven acres of wooded land with a stream valley, with interesting plant and bird life. Entrance is from Lovers Lane on R Street near 30th Street. Open daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. from early spring to late fall. Telephone: 381-7283 or 7284.

Ford's Theatre and House Where Lincoln Died: Ford's Theatre, 511 10th Street NW., is closed for restoration. The Petersen House across the street, where Lincoln died on the morning of April 15, 1865, is open daily from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. For group arrangements, call 381-7316.

Fort Dupont Park: This 400-acre forested parkland, bounded by Minnesota, Massachusetts, and Alabama Avenues SE., is ideal for nature study, hiking, and relaxation. The park also contains Fort Dupont (a Civil War fortification), a picnic area, an 18-hole golf course, and other recreational features. Telephone: 381-7401.

Fort Washington Park, Md.: Located on the Potomac River, 6 miles south of Washington, this 341-acre fortification guarded the river approach to the Nation's Capital for over a century. The park, open daily from 7:30 a.m. to dark, may be reached via Maryland Route 210 (Indian Head Highway). Turn right onto Fort Washington Road about 4½ miles below Capital Beltway (I-495) and continue 4 miles to park entrance. There is a museum at the drawbridge entrance to the fort. Telephone: 381-7401.

Glover-Archbold Park: You may enjoy the interesting natural history in this "miniature wilderness" on a walk along the nature trail. It is located at Reservoir Road and 44th Street NW. Telephone: 381-7283.

Grant Memorial is located on First Street, west of the Capitol. This bronze statue by Henry M. Shrady symbolizes General Grant guarding the Capitol that he so nobly helped to save.

Great Falls, Md. and Va.: These parks are reached respectively from exits 15 and 13 from the Capital Beltway (I-495), which bridges the Potomac River. Along the Maryland shore is the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal. The Great Falls Tavern, a canal feature dating from 1830, houses the C. & O. Canal Museum of History and Natural History exhibits. The museum is open daily from 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. The Great Falls are seen from an overlook about a half-mile walk from the tavern.

In the 800-acre park at Great Falls, Va., are remnants of a skirting canal built by the Patowmack Co. dating from 1785. George Washington and other famous Americans were associated with the project. A parking fee of 50 cents per car is collected. A visitor center to further implement interpretation of the area is under construction. Telephone: Great Falls, Md., 381-7343; Great Falls, Va., 381-7417.

Jefferson Memorial: Located on the south shore of the Tidal Basin. Open from 8 a.m. to midnight daily. Park Historians tell of the development of the Tidal Basin, the introduction of the Japanese cherry trees, and the great memorial to our country's third President, which is particularly appropriate to his contributions to the creation and development of our Nation. Telephone: 381-7316.

Kenilworth Aquatic Gardens: Anacostia Avenue and Ponds Street NE. (near Kenilworth and Eastern Avenues). Here in verdant riverside pools grow waterlilies, lotuses, and many other aquatic plants. Native wildflowers, birds, and aquatic animals add variety and interest to the quiet pools and marshy fringe. Yellow irises begin their colorful display by mid-May followed by the hardy waterlilies blooming in early June. From mid-July until October, lotuses and tropical waterlilies make a show with their varied colors. The gardens are at their best in the morning. Telephone: 381-7401.

Lafayette Park: This park, across Pennsylvania Avenue from the White House, is surrounded by historic buildings—Blair House, Decatur House, St. John's Church, the Dolly Madison House, and Treasury. In the center of the park is Clark Mills' famous statue of Andrew Jackson, and at the corners are statues of American Revolutionary patriots from across the sea: General Lafayette, Kosciuszko, Rochambeau, and Von Steuben. Telephone: 381-7446.

Lincoln Memorial: Visit and meditate on the life of Abraham Lincoln. Open daily from 8 a.m. until midnight. Special group visits may be arranged by calling 381-7309. No admission fee.

The Mall: In his design of the Federal City, Maj. Pierre Charles L'Enfant envisioned the Mall as a central theme—a beautiful, wide, open area within the very heart of a great city, to be reclaimed from the marshland of Tiber Creek. On L'Enfant's map, the Mall terminated about 125 yards west of the Washington Monument. Since the filling in of more ground, and the erection of the Lincoln Memorial, the Mall has generally been viewed as extending from First Street at the foot of the Capitol Grounds to the Lincoln Memorial. Telephone: 381-7316.

Meridian Hill Park. This Italian Renaissance garden with cascades, pool, and sculptured figures is bordered by 15th, 16th, Euclid, and W Streets NW. Park Historians and Naturalists conduct walks in the park throughout the season. Concerts, also, are given on Sunday evenings in summer. These are sponsored by the University Neighborhood Council and the District of Columbia Recreation Department. Telephone: 381-7283 or 7476.

Montrose Park: R Street and Avon Place NW. Croquet, basketball, tennis, nursery playground, and picnicking facilities. Telephone: 381-7283 or 7476.

Old Stone House: This pre-Revolutionary structure in the heart of Georgetown is located at 3051 M Street NW. Personnel on duty describe the house and tell of its history which began in 1765. It is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, July and August; Wednesday through Sunday the rest of the year. Telephone: 381-7383 or 7284.

Pierce Mill: This historic mill in Rock Creek Park, at Beach Drive and Park Road, is an interesting example of early 19th century grist mills. It is open Wednesday through Sunday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tours are conducted continuously throughout the day, and special tours for organized groups may be arranged. No fee. Telephone: 381-7535 or 7284.

Prince William Forest Park: Located near Quantico, Va., 32 miles south of Washington via Interstate 95 or U.S. 1, this park includes facilities for camping, picnicking, nature study, and hiking. Campfire programs, July and August, 8 p.m. nightly except Monday and Thursday. Naturalist-conducted walks daily at 8 a.m. Telephone: 381-7417.

Rock Creek Nature Center: On Glover Road in Rock Creek Park, south of intersection of Military Road and Oregon Avenue NW. This educational development includes a colorful exhibit hall, assembly room, and planetarium. Although designed primarily for children, adults also find the exhibits and activities interesting and enjoyable. Uniformed Park Naturalists are on duty to answer questions and conduct the programs. Admission is free.

Guide Yourself.—Electric quiz games, other unique “work-it-yourself” devices, and live specimens, including an observation beehive, vividly present the story of nature in Rock Creek Park. Outdoors, visitors will find two self-guiding nature trails.

Programs.—Nature programs, featuring special films, talks, and demonstrations, are presented in the assembly room every Saturday and Sunday. Planetarium programs vividly simulate the Washington sky through the use of a special projector and overhead projection dome. Demonstrations are given for groups, by appointment, during the morning and early afternoon, Tuesday through Friday, and to the general public every weekend and Wednesday and Friday afternoons. Consult the current quarterly nature center schedule for specific information.

Visiting Hours.—Tuesday through Saturday: 9:30 a.m. until 5 p.m. Sundays and holidays: March through November, 12 noon to 6 p.m.; December through February, 12 noon to 5 p.m. (Closed Mondays.) Telephone: 381-7367.

Sylvan Theater: This is an outdoor amphitheater on the Washington Monument Grounds. The schedule of Shakespeare plays and District of Columbia Recreation Department programs shown in the daily listing are tentative. Watch newspapers for specific dates. Telephone: 381-7446 or 7333.

Theodore Roosevelt Island: Memorial to our 26th President, an ardent conservationist. Accessible by temporary footbridge from parking lot on George Washington Memorial Parkway south of Key Bridge. Open 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. daily. Telephone: 381-7417.

U.S. Marine Corps War Memorial ("Iwo Jima Memorial"): On Arlington Ridge Road near Arlington National Cemetery. Sunset review by Marines, Tuesday evenings during summer. Special program November 10, 11 a.m. Telephone: 381-7417.

Washington Monument: An excellent view of the city is available from the observation windows at the top of this monument, built between 1848 and 1884. It is open daily from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m., from March 20 through Labor Day, and from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. for the remainder of the year. Elevator charge of 10 cents for all persons 16 years of age or over. Ascent may also be made by stairway. Telephone: 381-7316.

Watergate Theater: This outdoor theater is located on the Potomac River near the Lincoln Memorial, at the District of Columbia end of Arlington Memorial Bridge. Parking is available on nearby streets and park drives. Admission is free. Telephone: 381-7333.

Recreational and Cultural Activities

Consult Chronological Listing for Further Information on Programs

Tents and trailers are accommodated at the Owens Creek Campground, Catoclin Mountain Park. No utilities are available. There is a campground entrance fee. The campground is open from April 15 through October. Telephone: area code 301, 824-2022.

Carillon Concerts: The Netherlands Carillon is south of the U.S. Marine Corps War Memorial in Arlington. Free concerts by guest carillonneurs each Sunday, April through September, on May 5 (Netherlands' Liberation Day), and legal holidays. Telephone: 381-7417.

Cricket Matches: Polo Field in West Potomac Park between the Tidal Basin and the Potomac River. Sponsored by the British Commonwealth Cricket Club each Saturday and Sunday at 2 p.m., April 15 to October 22. Telephone: EMerson 2-9287, DUdley 1-2108, or Mr. Honda, 986-2312.

Day Camps: Park Naturalists cooperate with District of Columbia Recreation Department camp leaders to provide interesting outdoor experiences. For information and applications, contact the Recreation Department, 3149 16th Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20010. Free. Telephone: ADams 4-2050.

Exploring and Photographing the Sky: Members of the National Capital Astronomers bring their telescopes to events mentioned in the chronological listing and conduct "guided tours" of the heavens. If you wish to take telescopic pictures, bring your cameras loaded with film of A.S.A. speed 200 or higher. Bring your pictures to future programs to show and compare. On cloudy or rainy evenings, illustrated talks on astronomy are given in the Rock Creek Nature Center. Astronomy outings are held at Picnic Grove 16 west of the nature center, Rock Creek Park.

Fishing: No license required for fishing in the Potomac River or the C. & O. Canal, south of Chain Bridge. Maryland license required to fish in the river and canal above the District line for all over 16 years of age. At Catoctin Mountain Park, a Maryland fishing license is required. A Virginia license is required for fishing in Prince William Forest Park.

Golf: Public courses in East Potomac Park, south of 14th Street; Fort Dupont Park, Minnesota Avenue, and Randle Circle SE.; Langston Park, 25th Street and Benning Road NE.; Rock Creek Park, near 16th and Rittenhouse Streets NW. Miniature golf facilities at East Potomac Park and Anacostia Park. Operated by S. G. Leoffler Co. under contract with the National Park Service. Telephone: EXecutive 3-7325.

Hikes: Longer, more difficult walks are conducted by Park Naturalists in November. Dress appropriately for these outdoor adventures by wearing sturdy shoes and comfortable clothing. Telephone: 381-7283. Guided hikes at Catoctin Mountain Park also shown in the chronological listing.

Hiking Areas: Chesapeake and Ohio Canal towpath. Also rugged trails along Potomac gorge, near Great Falls, on both sides of river. Trail along the Potomac between Windy Run and Spout Run connects with Arlington County trail system. Turkey Run recreation area has short stretches of trail.

At the Rock Creek Nature Center, there are two self-guiding nature trails. An extensive system of hiking trails through Rock Creek Park is also easily accessible from the nature center. The Park Naturalists on duty will be glad to give you detailed hiking information.

There are marked hiking trails at Catoctin Mountain Park and Prince William Forest Park.

Horseback Riding: Bridle trails are available in Rock Creek Park and on Rock Creek and Potomac Parkway.
